

Instructions to Authors

The Journal of Intellectual Property Rights is a peer-reviewed journal devoted to publishing papers on all aspects of the intellectual property rights. The journal will consider for publication contributed papers, invited papers, technical notes, and book reviews (by invitation of the editor).

Preparation and Submission of Manuscript

Authors are advised to see the recent issue of the journal (available at <http://nopr.niscair.res.in/handle/123456789/45>) to get familiar with the format of the paper. Manuscript should be provided in concise form. Pages should be numbered consecutively, and the matter should be arranged in the following order: title, name(s) of the author(s), department(s) and institution(s), abstract, keywords, introduction, premise, discussion, conclusion, acknowledgement, and references.

The 'Online Publishing @NISCAIR' has been implemented in JIPR for end to end automation. The manuscript in MS word format consisting of 5000-7000 words (single column, continuous) should be uploaded online after registration at the following url: <http://op.niscair.res.in>. The illustrations in suitable formats (tiff/jpeg or other) along with captions should be placed at appropriate places in the article or uploaded separately as supplementary files.

The abstract, usually not exceeding 200 words should indicate the scope and method used in the paper, highlighting the principal findings and conclusions.

References to the information sources, numbered consecutively, should be placed at the end of the paper as end notes and not as footnotes. Identical references should be indicated by the same reference numeral. In the text, references should be indicated by numbers placed above the line (superscript) and come after the full point. e.g. The realization developing countries.¹

In citing references to articles, names and initials for the authors should be followed, in order, by the title of the paper, full title of the periodical (italics), the volume number, issue number within circular brackets, year within circular brackets, and inclusive pages, e. g., Rastogi T, IP audit: Way to a healthy organization, Journal of Intellectual Property Rights, 15(4) (2010) 302-309.

References to a book should include names and initials of the authors, the title of the book (italics), name of the publisher and place of publication within circular brackets, edition, year of publication, and page(s), e. g., Sreedharan

Sunita K, An Introduction to Intellectual Asset Management (Wolter Kluwer India Pvt Ltd, New Delhi), 2008, p. 214-216.

References to case laws should begin with the name of the case with the plaintiff and defendant names in italics, followed by the citation as in case law reporter, e.g., Vranjilal Manilal & Co v Bansal Tobacco Co (2001) PTC 99 (Del).

References to a patent should include names of patentees, title of the patent, country of origin (italics) and patent number, organization to which the patent has been assigned within circular brackets, date of grant or issue of the patent,

e. g., Dingle P J G, Dual mode combustion apparatus and method, US Pat No 7,685,990 (to Delphi Technologies Inc, USA), 30 March 2010.

Reference to information downloaded from a website should give full address of website without underline, followed by date of download, if data are dynamic, e.g., www.niscair.res.in (24 September 2010).

Use of id, ibid, supra note etc., should be avoided; instead appropriate reference should be given.

Essentials of Manuscript
